

A Hanna Estimate.

A prominent Californian who has recently returned from the East met Mark Hanna in Washington and talked with him over the election.

"I've but one regret," Hanna is alleged to have said. "Only one."

"What is that?" queried the visitor.

"That I did not put $20,000 into McKinley's fight in Nevada and thus left Jones, Stewart and Newlands high and dry. There's not a doubt we could have carried the place for that sum. Not a doubt of it."—Wave.

Mr. Hanna does not seem to realize how much money it takes to make an impression in Nevada. A little dab like that would not have any more than pacified a few of the Republican bosses.

H. Kirchner Dead.

Mr. Kirchner of the Arlington, who went below not long ago to be treated for blood poisoning, died yesterday. His leg was amputated a few days ago and he was unable to survive the shock. He was a very genial old gentleman, who left many warm friends in this city.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS.

Citizens Who Have Decided to Turn Over a New Leaf.

The APPEAL has interviewed a few prominent citizens regarding their good resolutions for 1897. They have sworn off as follows:

Senator Stewart will never again talk over three hours at one time on the silver question.

Senator Jones will make no more investments in Santa Monica.

Governor Sadler will hereafter limit his daily tippie to Budweiser beer.

George Bryson will hunt no more tin geese.

All the butchers in Carson will keep their hands off the sea when weighing meat.

Judge Henly will tell no more long political anecdotes.

M. Cohn will quit saying "Leave it to me."

Several milk men will quit watering their milk.

Joe Rayercraft will never again get the best of a man on a horse trade.

The grocers will all sell full weight from this on.

Harris the barber will never open his mouth to a customer while shaving him.

H. M. Yarrington will go out of politics.

So will Charley Wallace.

Tim Dempsey will give no credit during the legislative session.

Bowers of the race track will not pull a horse in 1897.

Neither will "Pizer."

The Republican press of this State will tell the frozen truth from this on.

O. H. Grey and Judge Murphy will quit voting the Republican ticket.

Christmas in Jail.

The inmates of the County jail had a splendid dinner on Christmas, thanks to the kindness of Mrs. Kermec. The day before Christmas she asked her son Walter what he wanted for his Christmas dinner and he said that the inmates of the jail had been very kind and good to him and he did not want to have a fine Christmas dinner all alone and not be able to ask them to share it. Unless he could have enough to invite all hands he would have none.

The Kermecs sent down a big Christmas layout to the jail and Walter occupied the head of the table and served a royal feed for the delighted guests. The most fashionable families in the city did not have any better dinner than those poor fellows did in the corridor of the County jail. They drank the health of the people who had furnished their repast and voted the Christmas festivities in the jail as "valright."

A Family Bird.

The following is vouched for by Judge Belknap and Judge Hawley, who happened to hear the conversation which occurred in Bell's store. The clerk had passed over to our new doctor a fine live turkey for inspection, and he appeared pleased with it, as it was very fat. The clerk remarked: "I will deliver it at your house to-night."

Doctor—Vos?

Clerk—I will deliver it at your house.

Doctor—I pre-fair you send me your turkey not in zo family condition.

The above is vouched for by Alf Chantz in the Courier.

The Salvation Army Poster.

Captain Van Dyke of the Salvation Army wishes to state in reply to the item in the News of last night, that while the Army uses all means possible to advertise a meeting, that no reflection on the dead was intended, and while it was an error on his part (and not the Army) in the way the way the poster was worded, feels that the public should except the apology and expl nation. Mr. Beatty is in Reno very ill, and will not be in Carson for some time.

CAPTAIN VAN DYKE.

Eighteen inches of snow has fallen at Truckee and the sleighing is excellent there. The citizens of that town are now happy over the prospect of a grand ice and snow carnival this month.

The Oest Strike.

The famous Oest mine at Silver City has got into a bonanza again after running through bonanzas for about a year. The mine has produced about three-quarters of a million in gold since pay was first taken out of it in 1884 by Fred Oest. Oest was an old man then, and lame, and broke. His wife helped him keep up by washing and nursing. She now lives in San Jose and is financially well situated. Fred Oest went into partnership with Oest some years ago, and he took out a great deal of money, but he put it right back into the mine in improvements for hoisting, and pumping water and prospecting. The late strike of ore is little above the water level, and is very rich. The ore goes down and strong, and has good plain walls. There is no doubt entertained by well informed miners and experts that the Oest is very rich below the water level, and that the bodies of ore at great depth are large.

Workers for Bryan.

New York, Jan. 2.—The Progressive Democratic club tonight decided to work for the nomination of William J. Bryan for President in 1900, and issued invitations to all Democratic organizations in the North to attend a convention to be held in January.

Ovation to Mr. Brown.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Dec. 30.—The Rev. C. O. Brown, of San Francisco, was accorded a very warm reception here at his old home. The First Congregational church, where he preached morning and evening was crowded, and the greeting he received at the close of the service was something like an ovation.

Those Chicago Chinamen who are planning a revolution in China and the invasion of the Flowery Kingdom are evidently catering up with the spirit of the time. The next move will no doubt be the calling for contributions in aid of "the cause."

Senator Mooney, of Mississippi will go to Cuba to ascertain, for his own personal edification, the true state of affairs, as he says the information by the department is very meagre.

Congress should not only recognize the Cubans as belligerents, but impeach the President and his Secretary of State.—S. F. Star.

The practice adopted in some States of paying taxes in general fund county warrants would be a good thing for the next Legislature to consider. There is no doubt but it would help both the county and the taxpayer. There is no reason why the county should not take its own paper in payment for obligations due it.
